PREPARING FOR EID

Supplicate to Allah ﷻ the night before Eid and ask Him for forgiveness for any shortcomings

On the morning of Eid, take a shower and celebrate by donning your best garments. It is also customary to apply perfume.

Recite the Takbīrāt of Eid, glorifying Allah and rejoicing in the occasion.

Demonstrate the end of the month of fasting by eating after Fajr on the morning of Eid.

The Prophet Muhammad ﷺ would not leave his house on the day of Eid without eating some dates.

Be kind and generous. Congratulate others.

Fulfill your obligation of contributing zakat al-fiṭr ($10) before the morning of Eid.

The majority of scholars are in agreement that zakat al-fiṭr is mandatory for every believer male or female, young or old. This serves the purpose of uniting Muslims on the day of Eid so they may celebrate regardless of financial circumstances.
